

Contents

| | |
|---|-----|
| Editors' Preface..... | 7 |
| JOSÉ MIGUEL SARDICA | |
| Chapter 1 – From innocence to harshness: the civilizational significance of World War I..... | 11 |
| SIMON WALKER | |
| Chapter 2 – ‘Silent Deaths’: British Soldier Suicides in the First World War | 25 |
| EMILIA MUSUMECI | |
| Chapter 3 – A Eugenic Legislation: Health before, during and after the Great War in Italy..... | 53 |
| GEORGETA FODOR, MARIA TĂȚAR-DAN | |
| Chapter 4 – “Our Sacrifice for the Country!” War and Gender Identity in Transylvania..... | 77 |
| JOSÉ MANUEL SOBRAL, MARIA LUÍSA LIMA | |
| Chapter 5 – Public silence: the memory of the influenza epidemic of 1918–19 in Portugal..... | 99 |
| NICOLAS TODD | |
| Chapter 6 – The social reception of a novel legal framework for WW1 orphans: the pupille de la Nation status..... | 121 |
| OANA HABOR | |
| Chapter 7 – War Trauma, mental health and social consequences of World War I in Romanian Psychology and Psychiatry (1919–1939)..... | 139 |

SÍLVIA CORREIA

Chapter 8 – (In)complete Citizens: First World War Portuguese Disabled Soldiers and the Construction of Group Identity..... 161

PETER TEIBENBACHER

Chapter 9 – War, Peace and times of transition: Civil demographic losses in Austria during WW I and “recovery” until 1938.
An international and intraregional comparison..... 179

ANASTASIOS ZOGRAFOS

Chapter 10 – For the protection of public health: Prisoners of War and Refugees in Quarantine on Saint-George Island, 1922–1925 201

GRAŻYNA LICZBIŃSKA, ZBIGNIEW CZAPLA, JANUSZ PIONTEK,
ROBERT M. MALINA

Chapter 11 – The impact of the Second World War on the young Polish population..... 227

IOAN BOLOVAN / SORINA PAULA BOLOVAN

Chapter 12 – Warfare in the 19th-20th Centuries and Its Effects:
A Necessary Evil? (Case Study: World War I) 249

Biographical Notes..... 273