

CONTENTS

- 5 Words of Welcome
Ina Hartwig, Director of Culture of the City Frankfurt am Main
- INTRODUCTION
- 6 Bought. Collected. Looted? How Things Came into the Museum
Five Exhibitions on 'legalised theft' in Four Museums
Angela Jannelli
- 10 Cultural Policy under National Socialism and the Role of the Museums
Sebastian Farnung
- 18 The Founding and Destruction of the Museum of Jewish Antiquities
Katharina Rauschenberger
- 24 HISTORICAL MUSEUM FRANKFURT
- 26 Inherited. Bought. Looted?
Everyday Objects and their Nazi Past
Jan Gerchow
- 28 Provenance Research at the Historical Museum Frankfurt
Jürgen Steen
- 34 JEWISH MUSEUM FRANKFURT AND JUDENGASSE MUSEUM
- 36 Looted. Destroyed. Scattered.
The History of Jewish Objects in Frankfurt
Eva Atlan, Mirjam Wenzel, Linda Wiesner
- 44 MUSEUM ANGEWANDTE KUNST
- 46 Collected. Stolen. Obscured.
The Pinkus/Ehrlich Collection and the Museum Angewandte Kunst
Katharina Weiler, Grit Weber
- 54 WELTKULTUREN MUSEUM
- 56 Collected. Bought. Looted?
Case Studies from a Colonial and National Socialist Context
Julia Friedel, Vanessa von Gliszczynski
- 64 THE HISTORICAL MUSEUM'S STADTLABOR
- 66 'Difficult Things'. A City Lab Project on Looted Objects in Private Life
Angela Jannelli, Gottfried Kößler
- 72 The 'Difficult Things' of the City Lab Participants
Melanie Hartlaub, Bettina Schmaltz, Erik Voigt, Gisa Hillesheimer, Frank Paulun, Barbara Dankert, Jürgen Jäger, Helga Franke, Angela Jannelli
A Personal Perspective: Sara Soussan
- 84 Supported Archival Research. Tracing the Biographies of the 'Difficult Things'
Ann-Kathrin Rahlwes, Johannes Beermann
- 88 Thomas Georg Blank – Elikan
- 90 Imprint