

Table of Contents

- 7 Introduction
- 12 Impressions from the exhibition
- 17 “In the Country of Numbers, where the men have no names”
  - November Pogrom prisoners of Sachsenhausen:
Imprisonment and exile
  - 17 The November pogroms of 1938
  - 19 Sachsenhausen concentration camp
  - 21 Concentration camp experiences
  - 38 Mass flight after the terror of November
    - Frozen assets*
    - Plundering by means of flight taxes and fees*
    - Bureaucratic obstacles and other hindrances*
    - The end of emigration*
- 40 Exile destinations and fates in exile
  - Attractive, but difficult to reach: The Anglo-American nations*
  - 44 Hūsten–Swindon–Wiltshire–Kfar Hanassi Kibbutz:
The Grüneberg family
  - 58 Hamburg–Newark: The Nathan family
  - 71 Schneidemühl–Montreal: The Philipp family
  - 84 Due to a lack of alternatives: Latin America
    - Land of Promise: Palestine (Israel)*
  - 87 Meinerzhagen–Lisbon–Buenos Aires: The Stern family
  - 98 Oldenburg–Basel–Haifa–Zurich/Oldenburg–La Paz–Buenos Aires:
The de Beer family
  - 120 Hamburg–Montevideo–Frankfurt/Main–Tel Aviv:
The Levisohn family
  - 134 Destination of last resort: Southeast Asia, Australia
  - 137 Berlin–Shanghai–Melbourne: The Prager family
  - 152 Berlin–Melbourne: The Baum family
  - 169 Berlin–Singapur–Internment camp Tatura–Sydney:
The Baer family
- 184 Imprint