

CONTENTS

Special Issue: Entrepreneurial Groups and Entrepreneurial Families

Introduction

- Isabell Stamm, Allan Discua Cruz & Ludovic Cailluet 7
Entrepreneurial Groups: Definition, Forms, and Historic Change.

Contributions

- Katharina Scheidgen 42
Social Contexts in Team Formation: Why Do Independent Start-Ups and University Spin-Offs Form Teams Differently?
- Paloma Fernández Pérez 75
Pioneers and Challengers in the Global Plasma Protein Industry, 1915-2015.
- Robert Peters 96
The Interrelationship between Structure and Collective Actors: A Concept for a Dynamic-Reciprocal Model of Structural Change.
- Maria Elo 129
Immigrant Effect and Collective Entrepreneurship – The Creation and Development of a Turkish Entrepreneurial Group.
- Stefan Berwing 162
Extending Mixed Embeddedness: Entrepreneurial Figurations of Entrepreneurs with Migrant Origins in Germany.
- Michael Weinhardt & Isabell Stamm 186
Drawing Samples for the Longitudinal Study of Entrepreneurial Groups from Process-Generated Data: A Proposal Based on the German Register of Companies.
- Tim Seidenschur 222
The Logic of Innovation. A Study on the Narrative Construction of Intrapreneurial Groups in the Light of Competing Institutional Logics.

Forum: Meaning of Division and Unification for Korean Immigrants

Introduction

- Woo-Young Lee & Eun-Jeung Lee 253
The Issue of Mind Integration in the Unification of Divided Systems:
A Case Study Focused on Germany and the Two Koreas.

Contributions

- Young-Mi Kwon & Juhwa Park 269
Peace through Cooperation or Peace through Strength? How to Achieve
Peace in the Very Intractable Conflict Society.
- Woo-Young Lee & Hayeon Lee 293
The Perception of the Integration of North and South Korea.
- Jin-Heon Jung & Eun-Jeung Lee 308
Division and Unification: Seen through the Eyes of Korean Migrants in Berlin.
- Bong-Ki Lee & Hannes Mosler 325
The Elephant in the Room: Problems and Potentials of the Workers' Party of Korea in a Korean Unification Scenario.