

Content

Preface	3
Executive Summary	4
Introduction	6
Current financial challenges and experiences from different regions	8
UN Financing for Development – Opportunities and challenges in the run up to the High-Level Dialogue “Finance Summit” at the United Nations	8
Current challenges and prospects for global economic and financial system from an Asian perspective	9
Forecasting and scenarios on financial crisis in Mexico	10
Financing for sustainable development – The dangers and perspectives of private financing in Africa	11
Impact of climate change on debt in the Caribbean region	12
Regulatory gaps – the increasing systemic risks of financial crises	13
Africa’s experience with globalized finance	13
The role of IMF and World Bank in promoting financialization of economic systems	13
Financial instability and the financial system: What are the regulatory and governance gaps?	14
Irresponsible lending and investing by financial institutions – need for mandatory transparency rules	15
Deregulation and the influence of the financial industry – comments from an European perspective	15
How does financialization impact civil society?	18
Civil 20 and the International Financial Architecture	18
Will (EU) Policies on sustainable finance and ‘green’ central banks be able to transform the globalized financial system?	19
Illicit flows and tax flight and tax competition	20
Current challenges to the 2030 Agenda in Brazil: The rise of financial deregulation	20
CSO key areas for further engagement	23
CSO Groups, networks and initiatives for further engagement	25
Speakers and discussants	28