

Contents

Preface to the English Edition	vii
Abbreviations	xi
CHAPTER 1
Introduction: The Defendant at Constance	1
CHAPTER 2
Jan Hus in the Hands of Historians	7
CHAPTER 3
Master Jan Hus: A Brief Biography	21
CHAPTER 4
Hus the Preacher: The Appointment as Rector of the Bethlehem Chapel, 1402	27
CHAPTER 5
Prague Wycliffism and the “Learned Heresy”: The First Condemnation of Wyclif’s Articles, 1403	39
CHAPTER 6
Jan Hus and Church Reform: The Synodal Sermons, 1405 and 1407	53
CHAPTER 7
The University Career of Master Hus: The Rector’s Speech of 1409, “Strengthen Your Hearts”	65
CHAPTER 8
The Generation of the Decree of Kutná Hora: The University of Prague as a Central European Crossroads	73

CHAPTER 9
The Hussites' Media Campaign: Appealing the Papal Prohibition of Preaching, 1410	81
CHAPTER 10
Public Engagement and Political Support: Royal Expropriation of Church Property, 1411	93
CHAPTER 11
Leader of the Protest Movement: The Prague Indulgence Disputes, 1412	103
CHAPTER 12
The Judicial Process: The Appeal to Christ, 1412	115
CHAPTER 13
The Invisible Church and Conditional Obedience: Hus's Book On the Church, 1413	123
CHAPTER 14
Writing in the Vernacular and Mission in the Countryside: The Czech Postil, 1413	135
CHAPTER 15
The Council of Constance: Conviction and Execution, 1414–15	145
CHAPTER 16
Epilogue: Hussitism and Reformation	159
Notes	167
Works of Jan Hus	197
Further Primary Sources	199
Bibliography	203
Index of Personal Names	219
About the Author	225