Contents

List of Contributors ................................................................. 7

Jan Krasicki, Ilona Bölcian
Philosophical Significance of Image and Imagination – Introduction .......... 9

I. About the Significance of the Imagination

Jean-Jacques Wunenburger
Mytho-logics of Politics, History and Current Events ............................... 15

Jan Krasicki
The Right to the Impossible: Man, Philosophy and Imagination .................. 29

II. Imagination as a Tool of Philosophy

Leszek Kleszcz
Exercising of the Imagination .......................................................... 51

Kamil Cekiera
Imagination as a Philosophical Tool: Intuition, Thought Experiments and Conceivability ................................................. 65

III. Imagination – Society – Politics

Maria Kostyszak
What Kind of Cinema Develops Luce Irigaray’s Ideas of Love and of Democracy? ................................................................. 81

Elena Ustiugova
Symbolic Language of Style as an Aesthetic Bridge between Thinking, Art, and Culture: Style and Imagination ................................. 89

Olga Davydova
Document, Fact, Image: Towards the Un-Politics of Documentary Representation ................................................................. 97
Contents

Elena Stetsko
Risk Analysis in the Process of Image Formation of the Eurasian Economic Union .............................................................. 107

Karol Morawski
The Political Power of the Images: Revolutionary Imaginarium ................. 123

IV. Imagination and Image in German Philosophy

Leon Miodoński
Imagination and Genius – Schelling and Transcendental Constellations of Post-Kantian Idealism .................................................................................................................. 143

Beata Trochimska-Kubacka
Image-Cognition-Art: Integrity or Contradiction? ...................................... 153

V. Grasps of Imagery in French Philosophy

Kamila Morawska
Gaston Bachelard: Anthropology of the Image ........................................ 171

Ilona Btocian
The Three Grasps of Unconsciousnesses – Freud, Bachelard, Deleuze and Guattari .................................................................................................................. 187