

Contents

Frances Pownall

Introduction — 1

I The Transformation of Royal Authority: Personal Relationships at the Macedonian Court

Edward M. Anson

Philip and Alexander and the Nature of Their Personal Kingship — 17

Waldemar Heckel

Storm Clouds over Three Hellenistic Courts: Observations on the Life and Death of Ptolemy Ceraunus — 33

II The Courts of Philip and Alexander in the Eyes of Contemporary Greeks

Jeremy Trevett

Diplomatic Activity at the Court of Philip II — 57

Craig Cooper

Kairos*, Mistrust of Tyranny and the Rhetoric of Court in Demosthenes' Olynthiacs — 79

Thomas C. Rose

The Exile of Demochares of Leuconoe Revisited — 97

Sabine Müller

Philip II, Alexander III, and Members of Their Court in Greek Comedy — 125

III The Influence of Persia and the Ancient Near East on Alexander's Court

Elizabeth Baynham

Bosworth on Alexander and the Iranians Revisited: Alexander's Marriages to Persian Brides at Susa: A Study of Arrian, Anabasis 7.4.4–8 — 149

Phillip Bosman

Two Conceptions of Court at Persepolis — 169

Rolf Strootman

Pothos* or Propaganda? Alexander's Longing to Reach the Ocean and Argead Imperial Ideology — 189

IV Raising a Prince in the Macedonian Court: Stories of Alexander's Birth and Education

Daniel Ogden

The Serpent Sire of Alexander the Great: A Palinode — 211

Christian Thue Djurslev

Educating Alexander: High Culture in the Argead Court through Ancient Texts — 233

V Alexander's Court in Retrospective

Rebecca Frank

"The Best Man Among the Dead:" Alexander son of Ammon in an Alexandrian Inscription — 255

Steven E. Hijmans

Alexander or not? The Problem of Alexander-like Portraits in Roman Art — 275

Index — 299