Contents

Alexander Schütze and Andreas Schwab
Herodotean Soundings. The Cambyses Logos 7

Close readings: Linguistic, narratological and philosophical perspectives

Elizabeth Irwin
Just Who is Cambyses? Imperial Identities and Egyptian Campaigns 25

Anna Bonifazi
Herodotus' verbal strategies to depict Cambyses' abnormality 93

Anthony Ellis
Relativism in Herodotus. Foreign Crimes and Divinities in the Inquiry 109

The Cambyses logos and other sources on the conquest of Egypt

Melanie Wasmuth
Perception and Reception of Cambyses as Conqueror and King of Egypt. Some Fundamentals 153

Alexander Schütze
Cambyses the Egyptian? Remembering Cambyses and Amasis in Persian Period Egypt 187

Reinhold Bichler
A comparative look at the post-Herodotean Cambyses 237

Geopolitical dimensions of the Cambyses logos

Gunnar Sperveslage
On the historical and archaeological background of Cambyses' alliance with Arab tribes (Hdt. 3.4–9) 263

Damien Agut-Labordère
An "Ammonian Tale". Cambyses in the Egyptian Western Desert 283

Bibliografische Informationen
https://d-nb.info/1261721403

digitalisiert durch DEUTSCHE NATIONAL BIBLIOTHEK

Olaf E. Kaper
The revolt of Petubastis IV during the reigns of Cambyses and Darius 297

Andreas Schwab
Pindaric 'arrows' in Herodotus: Ψάμμος (Hdt. 3.26). Just a sandstorm or also a rebel(lion)? 305

Cambyses and the Egyptian Temples

Dan'el Kahn
Cambyses' Attitude towards Egyptian Temples in Contemporary Texts and Later Sources. A Reevaluation of the Persian Conquest of Egypt 327

Fabian Wespi
Cambyses' Decree and the destruction of Egyptian temples 351

Joachim Friedrich Quack
Cambyses and the sanctuary of Ptah 371

List of Contributors 391

Index nominum, rerum et locorum 393

Index fontium 411