

Table of Contents

Introduction	7
• Setting City and State on Stage	8
• State-Building in the Colony	15
• Conceptualising and Constructing a (Capital) City	22
I The Power of the Picturesque	33
• City of Palaces: Humble Beginnings	33
• Reconstructing Calcutta	39
• The Picturesque	42
• Palladianism	48
II Coordinates of Power: Streets and Squares	53
• Mapping, Planning, and Funding Calcutta's Urban Space	53
• The Street Grid and the Waterfront	58
• The Eastern Axis and its Squares	66
• Tank Square	70
• "Axis of Power" and "Axis of Might"	78
III Built Sovereignty: Representative Public Buildings	85
• Calcutta's Outstanding Architecture	85
• Government House	86
• Calcutta Town Hall	93
• St John's Church	102
IV Architecture of Sovereignty: Prestigious and Privileged Residential Areas	109
• Town Mansions and Garden Houses	109
• Chowringhee Road	110
• Ochterlony Monument	111
• Calcutta's Urban Fringes	113
• Barrackpore House and Garden	119

V Ceremonies of Sovereignty and Rituals of Rule	129
• On the Significance of State Ceremonies and Rituals.....	129
• Regulations and Organisation of Public and State Ceremonies	131
• State Entry: An Order of Space and Place.....	138
• Public Ceremonies: Self-Manifestation of Power and Might.....	144
• Splendid Spectacles: Decoration, Ornamentation and Illumination	149
VI Cultures of Commemoration.....	157
• Death in Calcutta.....	157
• Funerals.....	159
• Calcutta Park Street Cemetery.....	162
• Grave Monuments	167
• Epitaphs.....	176
Conclusions and Prospects	181
Bibliography.....	191
Index.....	206
Illustration Credits	211