Contents

Kurt J. Engemann, Cathryn F. Lavery and Jeanne M. Sheehan
Advances in socio-political risk management —— V

Part I: Fundamentals

Cesar Marolla
1 The dynamics of global risks: Socio-political risks in strategic management and policy decisions —— 3

Hugh Gash
2 Socio-political risk management: Psychological aspects —— 19

Saquib Hyat-Khan
3 Human resources: Endogenous political risk —— 35

Jeanne Sheehan
4 Beyond lip-service: Content clouds, 10-K filings, cyber risk and the electric grid —— 51

Steven Michels
5 The risk of climate change and extreme weather —— 73

Cathryn F. Lavery
6 Socio-political risks associated with sexual harassment, assault and gender discrimination among institutions of higher education —— 89

Kimberly Spanjol and Paolo Zucca
7 Biophilia, one health, and humane education: Mitigating global risk through embracing humanity's interconnection with the natural world —— 109

Part II: Applications

Giampiero E. G. Beroggi
8 A latent factor risk model for COVID-19 —— 133

Bibliografische Informationen
https://d-nb.info/1273484762

digitalisiert durch DEUTSCHE NATIONAL BIBLIOTHEK

Markus Biehl and Nisha Kulangara
9 A triadic perspective on the risks of IS outsourcing in a Software as a Service (SaaS) context — 151

Katherine Kinkela
10 Environmental, Social and Governance objectives and disclosures (ESG) and enterprise risk — 171

Stephen A. Morreale
11 Socio-political risks and their impact on criminal justice organizations — 189

David T. Mulcahy
12 The use of task forces internationally: Mitigating socio-political risks for law enforcement agencies — 207

Michael Sheehy and Cathryn F. Lavery
13 Freedom to express, professionalism, and public safety: Socio-political risks with social media for law enforcement agencies and practitioners — 223

Heath Grant
14 Social risk while doing social good – risk management considerations in the not-for-profit world — 239

Contributors — 253

Index — 255

Developments in managing and exploiting risk — 259