

2 Table of Contents

Introduction to the Prinzhorn Collection

4	Between Respect and Ostracism. The History of a Crazy Collection	16	Hans Prinzhorn, Art Historian and Psychiatrist
15	The Collection at a Glance	18	History of the Museum Building
		20	Perception of the Prinzhorn Collection Today

Works & Artists

22	“Like a Second Skin”	34	Lukas: Artistic Models
24	Frau St. and the Use of Special Materials	36	Viewing the Foreign: Karl Genzel’s Carvings and Tribal Art
26	Franz Kleber’s Book	38	Josef Forster and the Medical Records
28	August Natterer and Surrealism	40	August Klett’s Literary Artworks
30	Else Blankenhorn: First-Class Patient	42	Josef Heinrich Grebing and Toilet Paper
32	Johannes Friedrich: Adolescents in Psychiatric Treatment Around 1900	44	Heinrich Hermann Mebes and Asylum Architecture

46

Alois Dallmayr and the Gender Role Model

60

Insanely Funny – Erich Spießbach
and Humor in Psychiatry

48

Oskar Herzberg's Musical Notations

62

Sonja Gerstner: Psychiatry in the GDR

50

Margarethe Held and Malvina
Schnorr von Carolsfeld:
Mediumistic Art

64

Marcia Blaessle and Hans Wühr:
The Image as Medium of the Experience of Delirium

52

Paul Goesch – a Trained Artist in the Collection

66

The Work of Gudrun Bierski – a Successful Donation

54

Fellow Sufferers – Veristic Portraits
by Elfriede Lohse-Wächtler

68

Alexandra Galinova – Coping with Trauma through Images

56

Wilhelm Werner and the Medical Crimes of the Nazi Era

70

Alfred Stief: A Textile Artist

58

Friedrich Boss' Archive of Loneliness

72

Harald Bender: Outsider Art vs.
Conceptual Art

Appendix

74

Exhibitions Since the Opening of the Museum

79

Conferences