

Table of Contents

List of Contributors 7

Acknowledgements 9

Nuria Torres López and Carmen García Navarro

Introduction: Identity, Violence and Resilience in 21st-Century Black British and American Women's Fiction 11

Part 1 Shaping the Debate: Challenging Images

Zsuzsanna Lénárt-Muszka

Chapter 1 Haunting as Retaliation in 'The Old Doctor's Story' 25

Tiffany Sidders

Chapter 2 "The People We Love": Trauma in N.K. Jemisin's The Fifth Season 39

Maria Herrera Cardenas

Chapter 3 Women's Mental Health in Akwaeke Emezi's Freshwater 57

Part II Defining Spaces and Concepts: Violence, New Identities and New Meanings

Blasina Cantizano Márquez and Antonio Acosta Sánchez

Chapter 4 Drinking Coffee Elsewhere: When Violence Begets Violence 75

Leticia de la Paz de Dios

Chapter 5 Female Slaves' Rage and Resilience in Toni Morrison's Beloved 89

Mahailey Oliver

Chapter 6 "It Carries Shame": Intersectionality in Binti 101

Amirtha Devarajan

Chapter 7 Transnational Negotiations: Identities in Mr. Loverman 113

Part III Changing the Present and Future: Reclaiming Their Voices

Hatice Bay

Chapter 8 FBI, ICE, Police & Pollution: A Spy in the Struggle 137

Nuria Torres López

Chapter 9 Bernardine Evaristo: activism, resilience and identity 149

Carmen García Navarro

Chapter 10 Co-creating Resilient Practices in Aminatta Forna's
Happiness 167