

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface	7
Acknowledgements	8
List of Abbreviations	17
0.0 Introduction	21
0.1 The problem of the legal status of the laity in the Church	21
0.1.1 Pre-Vatican II era	21
0.1.2 Vatican II	23
0.1.3 The Codex Iuris Canonici of 1983	23
0.2 The topicality of the theme of study	24
0.3 Previous research efforts on subject matter	27
0.4 Area and place of research	29
0.5 Method	29
0.6 Disposition	30
0.7 Some clarifications	31
PART ONE: THE LAITY IN NIGERIA BEFOR THE SECOND VATICAN COUNCIL	33
1.0 Brief Historical Survey	35
1.1 The beginnings of evangelization and the pioneer lay members of the Church	36
1.2 The laity within the framework of the early missionary strategies	38
1.3 Summary	43
2.0 The Legal Status of the Official Lay Collaborators in the Parish	44
2.1 The catechist	44
2.1.1 The central catechist	44

2.1.1.1	The functions of the central catechist	44
2.1.1.2	Qualifications of a central catechist	47
2.1.1.3	The “legal” status of the central catechist	48
2.1.2	The out station catechist	52
2.1.2.1	The functions of the out station catechist	53
2.1.2.2	The qualifications of the out station catechist	55
2.1.2.3	The “legal” status of the out station catechist	56
2.2	The Church committee	58
2.2.1	The functions of the parish and local Church committees	59
2.2.2	The “legal” status of the Parish, and local Church committees	61
2.3	The laity and the associations of the faithful in the Nigerian Church before the Second Vatican Council	63
2.3.1	General remark on the legal position of associations of the faithful in universal law	64
2.3.2	Associations of the faithful in the Nigerian particular legislation	65
2.4	Evaluation	66
2.5	Summary	69

PART TWO: THE LAITY IN NIGERIA AFTER THE SECOND VATICAN COUNCIL 71

3.0	New Areas of Laity Participation in the Church: The Council System	73
3.1	General remark on the council system	73
3.2	The council system in the Nigerian Church	75
3.2.1	The diocesan pastoral council in Nigeria	76
3.2.1.1	The aim and scope of the pastoral council	76
3.2.1.2	Membership of the pastoral council	80
3.2.1.3	Requirements for membership in the pastoral council	84
3.2.1.4	“Modus operandi” of the pastoral council	87
3.2.1.5	Evaluation of the constitutions of pastoral councils in Nigeria	89
3.2.1.5.1	Deficiencies regarding statutes for pastoral councils	89
3.2.1.5.2	Deficiency regarding the status of the pastoral council	91
3.2.1.5.3	Deficiency regarding the span of life of the pastoral council	92
3.2.1.5.4	Deficiency regarding overlapping of competence	94

3.2.1.6	Suggested model constitution of diocesan pastoral council for Nigerian dioceses	98
3.2.2	The parish council	106
3.2.2.1	The aim and scope of the parish council	107
3.2.2.2	Membership	108
3.2.2.3	Qualification for membership	110
3.2.2.4	Meetings and “Modus operandi”	112
3.2.2.5	“Excursus”: The local Church council	113
3.2.2.6	Evaluation	114
3.2.3	The laity council	118
3.2.3.1	The establishment of laity councils in Nigeria	119
3.2.3.2	The Catholic laity council of Nigeria	122
3.2.3.2.1	The aims and objectives of the Catholic laity council of Nigeria	122
3.2.3.2.2	Membership	124
3.2.3.2.3	The activities and projects of the Catholic laity council of Nigeria	126
3.2.3.2.4	The “legal” status of the Catholic laity council of Nigeria vis à vis the Catholic Bishops’ conference of Nigeria	130
3.2.3.2.5	The “legal” status of the Catholic laity council of Nigeria vis à vis the Nigerian civil authorities	132
3.2.3.2.6	The “legal” status of the Catholic laity council of Nigeria vis à vis the subsidiary laity councils in the country	134
3.2.3.2.7	Further Observations and summary	136
3.2.4	“Excursus”: The laity council and the implications of “apostolicam actuositatem” art. 26	138
3.2.4.1	Structural consequences for the Nigerian Church	139
3.2.4.2	Concrete suggestions	141
4.0	Further/New Perspectives in the Legal Status of the Laity and their Participation in the Mission of the Church	142
4.1	The participation of the laity in the teaching office of the Church: the universal norms	143
4.1.1	Lay preaching	144

4.1.2	Other forms of laity participation in the teaching office of the Church	145
4.2	The participation of lay persons in the teaching office of the Church in Nigeria	146
4.2.1	The catechists	146
4.2.1.1	Towards the improvement of the status and pastoral functionality of catechists	147
4.2.1.1.1	Towards a qualitative training of catechists	149
4.2.1.1.2	Towards the improvement of the status and working conditions of catechists	153
4.2.2	Remarks on the participation of lay teachers of religion, some associations of the faithful and lay teachers of theology in “munus docendi ecclesiae”	159
4.2.2.1	Lay teachers of religion	159
4.2.2.2	Some associations of the faithful participating in “munus docendi ecclesiae”	161
4.2.2.3	Lay teachers of theology and “munus docendi ecclesiae”	162
4.3	The laity within the framework of the sanctifying mission of the Church: the universal norms	165
4.3.1	Permanent installation and temporary deputation of lay men as lectors and acolytes	166
4.3.2	Lay persons as special ministers in certain liturgical functions	167
4.3.3	Other liturgical functions exercised by the laity	168
4.4	The application and/or applicability of can. 230 §§ 1-3 and other related canons on the participation of lay persons in “munus sanctificandi ecclesiae” in Nigeria	168
4.4.1	The implications of can. 517 § 2 in view of the subject matter	168
4.4.2	Permanent lectors and acolytes in the Nigerian Church	170
4.4.2.1	The present status quo	170
4.4.2.2	Future perspectives	172

4.4.3	Lay persons as special ministers of Baptism	174
4.4.4	Lay persons as special ministers of the Eucharist	175
4.4.5	Lay persons assisting officially at marriage	178
4.4.6	Lay persons as special ministers of some sacramentals	180
4.4.7	A final remark on the theme of the participation of lay persons in “munus sanctificandi ecclesiae” in Nigeria	183
4.5	Further areas/other capacities of participation of lay persons in “officia ecclesiastica et munera”: the universal norms	183
4.5.1	Some observations and remarks	185
4.6	Further areas/other capacities of participation of lay persons in “officia ecclesiastica et munera” in Nigeria	186
4.6.1	The chancellor	186
4.6.2	Notaries	189
4.6.3	The involvement of the laity in matters relating to the appointment of a bishop and/or a parish priest: possibilities and limitations	190
4.6.3.1	Lay persons and the appointment of a bishop	191
4.6.3.2	Lay persons and the appointment of a parish priest	192
4.6.4	Lay persons and the administration of temporal goods of the Church	193
4.6.4.1	The diocesan finance council	193
4.6.4.1.1	Establishment	193
4.6.4.1.2	Composition and membership	194
4.6.4.1.3	Term of office	195
4.6.4.1.4	Functions and legal status	195
4.6.4.2	The diocesan financial administrator	198
4.6.4.3	The parish finance council	200
4.6.4.3.1	Membership	201
4.6.4.3.2	Term of office	202
4.6.4.3.3	Cessation of membership	202
4.6.4.3.4	Function and legal status	203
4.6.4.3.5	Summary	204

4.6.5	The participation of lay persons in ecclesiastical judiciary in Nigeria	205
4.6.5.1	Present possibilities and future perspectives	206
4.7	The laity and associations of the faithful	208
4.7.1	The influence of the Second Vatican Council on the understanding and conception of associations of the faithful	209
4.7.2	The Code of 1983 on associations of the faithful: common norms	210
4.7.2.1	Classification of associations of the faithful	211
4.7.2.2	Private associations of the faithful	212
4.7.2.2.1	Private associations of the faithful without juridic personality	212
4.7.2.2.2	Private associations of the faithful with juridic personality	214
4.7.2.3	Public associations of the faithful	215
4.8	The laity and associations of the faithful: The Nigerian Church situation	217
4.8.1	How far do associations of the faithful in Nigeria qualify as ecclesiastical associations in the light of the Code of 1983?	218
4.8.2	Classification of associations of the faithful in the Nigerian Church today	219
4.8.3	Private associations of the faithful	220
4.8.3.1	Private associations of the faithful with juridic personality	220
4.8.3.2	Private associations of the faithful without juridic personality	222
4.8.3.2.1	Private associations of the faithful with neither juridic personality nor statutes reviewed by the competent ecclesiastical authority	222
4.8.3.2.2	Private associations of the faithful without juridic personality, but with statutes reviewed by the competent ecclesiastical authority	224
4.8.3.2.3	Private associations of the faithful without juridic per- sonality, but with or without the designation "Catholic"	225

4.8.3.2.4	Private associations of the faithful without juridic personality, but with or without commendation or recommendation from the competent ecclesiastical authority	227
4.8.4	Further appraisal and future perspectives in the life of associations of the faithful in Nigeria	228
4.8.4.1	Developments in respect of the canonical status of existing associations of the faithful	228
4.8.4.2	The prospects for the establishment of new associations of the faithful	230
4.8.4.3	Towards according associations in general legal personality in the Nigerian civil legal system	231
4.8.4.3.1	The possibility of according legal personality to associations of the faithful in accordance with the Companies Act of 1968	232
4.8.5	Summary	234
	Final Reflections	236
	Conclusion	241
	Bibliography	243
	Appendix I	262
	Appendix II	263
	Appendix III	264
	Appendix IV	266