

Contents

European and International Economic Policy Cooperation: The Need for an Integrated Approach	9
by Peter Bofinger, University of Würzburg
Prospects for International Macroeconomic Policy Coordination: A British View	31
by Richard Brown, Manchester Business School
Germany's Role in International Macroeconomic Policy Cooperation	47
by Beate Reszat, HWWA Institute for Economic Research, Hamburg
DM-Exchange Rate Policymaking	75
by Jochen Michaelis, University of Freiburg
The Rules of the EMS and Monetary Policy Coordination in Europe: Its Flaws and Possibilities for Reform	101
by Peter Bofinger, University of Würzburg
Japan's Fiscal Policy, Population Aging, and External Balance	125
by Yukio Noguchi, Hitotsubashi University, Tokyo
Political Process of Monetary Policy Making in Japan	143
by Kazumasa Iwata, University of Tokyo	