Jens-Ulrich Davids
Richard Stinshoff
(eds.)

The Past
in the Present
Proceedings of the 5th Annual
British and Cultural Studies
Conference, Oldenburg 1994

PETER LANG
Europäischer Verlag der Wissenschaften
Contents

Introduction: The Past in the Present ................................. 7
Jens-Ulrich Davids and Richard Stinshoff

"Mere Democracy"? Britain’s circum-1900 Labour Movement
as a Long Lost Parent of Charter 88 ........................................ 17
Logie Barrow

The National Past as Commodity in the Contemporary British Screen Media .......................................................... 25
Peter Bennett

The Presentation of History in Museums in England .............. 37
Eddie Cass

Facing the Shameful in One’s Past:
Sean O’Casey’s Autobiographical Study of Anti-Semitism ........ 59
Ruth Fleischmann

‘Staying Afloat in a Sea of Change’:
The Discourse Practices of Neo-Ruralism ............................... 69
Jürgen Kamm

Presenting the Past: English Culture(s) in German English
Language Textbooks since the 18th Century ............................ 89
Friederike Klippel

Turning Your Back on the Future -
The Past and the Present in the Northern Ireland Conflict ....... 107
Thomas Noetzel

Unauthorized Versions: The Experience of History in Contemporary English Novels ............................................. 125
Martin Richter

Tales of Origin and Destination.
The Uses of History in the Narrative of the Nation .................. 135
Susannne Scholz

The Blind Spot when Looking for Historical Role Models:
The Historiographical Privileging of Suffragettes over Suffragists .. 151
Jutta Schwarzkopf

List of Contributors .......................................................... 161