

The Holocaust and Israel Reborn

From Catastrophe to Sovereignty

Monty Noam Penkower

University of Illinois Press
Urbana and Chicago

Contents

Preface ix

Part 1: Between the Two World Wars

1. Nahum Goldmann and Jewish Statesmanship, 1919–39 3

Part 2: Confronting the Abyss

2. Ben-Gurion, Silver, and the 1941 United Palestine Appeal
National Conference: A Turning Point in Zionist History 19

3. American Jewry and the Holocaust: From Biltmore to the American Jewish Conference 32

4. In Dramatic Dissent: The Bergson Boys 61

5. The World Jewish Congress/American Jewish Congress
in the Holocaust Years 91

6. For the Sake of Zion: Christian Allies and the Founding of Israel, 1939–45 109

Part 3: The Anglo-American Alliance

7. The 1943 Joint Anglo-American Statement on Palestine 145

8. Churchill, Kipling, Roosevelt, and “The Burden of Jerusalem” 177

9. America and the Palestine Dilemma in World War II 207

Part 4: To Revival

10. Jewish Cataclysm and Jewish Restoration: The Response of Leo Jung 237

11. Eleanor Roosevelt and the Plight of World Jewry 271

Part 5: Legacies

12. From Holocaust to Genocides 291

13. Auschwitz, the Papacy, and Poland’s “Jewish Problem” 302

14. At the Crossroads: American Jewry and the State of Israel 315

Afterword 335

Index 339