

CONTENTS

1 Introduction and summary	1
(Emmanuel Reynaud)
2 The structure of pension reform in the United Kingdom	11
(Bryn Davies)
Introduction	11
Outline of the public pension system	12
The legislative process	13
Reviewing the pension system: Formal structures	14
Reviewing the pension system: The practice	17
Reviewing the pension system: The Pensions Act 1995	19
Conclusions	23
3 The public pension system of the United States	25
(Lawrence H. Thompson)
Outline of the public pension programme	25
Financial oversight	28
Policy development	30
The reform process	34
Strengths and weaknesses of the American approach	35
Summary and conclusions	36
Selected bibliography	37

4	Monitoring and reform of pensions in Germany	39
	(Heinz-Dietrich Steinmeyer)
	The German statutory pension system (the state system)	39
	The legal basis and legislative process	40
	Institutional pressures	41
	The network of contacts with social groups	44
	Inclusion of the social partners in decisions on social policy	45
	Conclusions	46
5	The Japanese experience of review and reform of public pension schemes	49
	(Jean-François Estienne and Kiyoshi Murakami)
	The state pension system and the legislative process	49
	The status and role of public institutions involved in pension review and reform	53
	Distribution of the review, publication of results and consultation with interested parties	57
	The process of pension reform in Japan	57
	Illustration of national experience in the last pension reform:
	The main elements considered for reform in 1999	59
	The strengths and weaknesses of national practice	61
	Annex 1: Japanese pension schemes (at 31 March 1997)	64
	Annex 2: Consultative Committee on Pensions of the Ministry of Health and Social Affairs	65
	Annex 3: Earlier reforms	66
6	Sweden: Reform of the public pension system	67
	(Eskil Wadensjö)
	The present pension system	67
	The political process	69
	The new pension system	71
	The transition from the present system to the new one	75
	The actors in the pension reform process and changes in the pension schemes	76
	Strengths and weaknesses of Swedish pension practice	80

7	The public pension system in Italy: Observations on the recent reforms, methods of control and their application	81
	(Massimo Antichi and Felice Roberto Pizzuti)
	Introduction	81
	The influence of the new economic and political climate on pension reform in the 1990s	81
	Pension reform: Law No. 335 of 8 August 1995 (the Dini reform)	83
	Provisions subsequent to Law 335/95, in particular Law 449/97	87
	The role of the Government, institutions and social actors in the process of pension reform	88
	Conclusions	94
8	The process of pension reform in Spain	97
	(Ana Maria Lagares Pérez)
	Description of the social security system and current legislation	97
	The legislative process applicable to social security	98
	Role of public bodies involved in the review and reform of the social security system	100
	The process of reform: From the Toledo Pact to the law of 15 July 1997 on consolidation and rationalization of the social security system	101
	Conclusions	106