

A 333956

ALFONSO DE LA TORRE'S
VISIÓN DELETABLE

Philosophical Rationalism and the Religious Imagination in 15th Century Spain

BY

LUIS M. GIRÓN-NEGRÓN
/

BRILL
LEIDEN · BOSTON · KÖLN
2001

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction	xiii
 Chapter One: Philosophical Didacticism and Visión Deleytable : Jewish and Christian Contexts in 15th Century Spain	1
Originality and the Encyclopedic Tradition	1
Latin Scholasticism in 15th Century Spain	4
Alfonso de la Torre and Salamanca Scholasticism	11
1. Biographical Sketch	11
2. Scholasticism and Christian Doctrine in Visión Deleytable	23
Visión Deleytable and the Didactic Tradition	34
De la Torre's Philosophy Curriculum: a Hispano-Jewish Context	45
Spanish Translations of Hebrew Literature in the 15th Century	50
Some Remarks on 15th Century Jewish Philosophy Curricula	60
Visión Deleytable , Popular Skepticism and the Radical Aristotelians	69
 Chapter Two: Alfonso de la Torre's Religious Philosophy	77
Introduction	77
The Narrative Frame of Visión Deleytable	77
Visión 's Curriculum: An Overview	82
The Mountain's Ascent: Alfonso de la Torre on the Liberal Arts	84
1. Grammar	85
2. Logic	90
3. Rhetoric	92
4. Arithmetic	94
"‘In the House of Wisdom’": Metaphysics and Theology in Visión	99
1. On the Conditions for the Study of Philosophy	99
2. Divine Existence, Unity and Incorporeality	107

3. Divine Omnipotence and Divine Knowledge	116
4. Divine Goodness and the Final End of the World	121
5. Providence	124
6. Astrology	129
7. Cosmogony	136
8. Angelology and Prophecy: Some General Remarks	144
9. Kabbalah and Magic	149
“In the House of Nature”: Natural Philosophy in Visión Deleytable	159
1. Cosmology	160
2. Intellect and Immortality	167
“In the House of Reason”: De la Torre’s Moral Philosophy	178
1. Introduction	178
2. Bienaventurança as the Ultimate Good	179
3. Towards the Aristotelian Doctrine of Virtue: the Natural Passions	184
4. The Cardinal Virtues	190
5. Politics and Economics	193
6. The End of Man According to Reason	196
Conclusion	205
 Chapter Three: The Medieval and Renaissance Fate of Visión Deleytable	208
Introduction	208
The Editorial Fate of Visión Deleytable	208
Visión Deleytable in the 15th Century and the Golden Age	216
Philosophical Themes in Medieval Spanish Literature	223
Providence and Fortune in 15th Century Spanish Literature	227
Juan de Mena’s Laberinto de Fortuna	234
Cosmogony and Theodicy in Santillana’s Bias contra Fortuna	238
Fernando de Rojas as a Reader of Visión	251
 Concluding Remarks: Visión Deleytable and the Study of Religion	271
 Bibliography	276
Index Nominum	297