

Table of Contents

Preface by Professor Curt Gasteyger .....	11
Foreword by Dr. Markus Mohler .....	15
Acknowledgements .....	17
Summary .....	19
Chapter 1
Introduction: Internal Security in its new Context .....	23
Recent developments in internal security .....	24
Globalisation and perceptions of insecurity .....	27
Internal security .....	30
Not all challenges to security are assessed equally .....	32
The European context .....	36
Why look at Switzerland? .....	38
Chapter 2
Sources of Insecurity .....	41
Perceptions of insecurity .....	42
The context of security and insecurity .....	44
Contradiction in searching for security .....	49
Conclusion .....	51
Chapter 3
Challenges to Internal Security .....	53
Deviant, un-civil and aggressive behaviour in public .....	53
Assessment .....	58
Group violence .....	59
Assessment .....	61

Transnational crime, organised crime and corruption .....	62
Assessment .....	70
Terrorism as a challenge to security .....	72
Assessment .....	74
Public confidence in the police and the government .....	76
Conclusion .....	78
 Chapter 4
Crime statistics, Victimization and Perceptions of Insecurity .....	81
Reporting on crime .....	83
Table: Number of offences recorded by national statistics per 100'000 inhabitants.....	84
Table: Rise or fall of number of court cases for violent offences recorded in percent during the period 1993 to 1996 .....	86
Statistics and security .....	86
Differentiated reporting and victimization studies .....	90
Security as seen through crime statistics and victim surveys .....	93
Conclusion .....	95
 Chapter 5
Migration, Immigration and Internal Security .....	97
Population pressures, poverty and wealth .....	99
Changes and Trends .....	100
Table: Number of foreign residents in selected countries for the years 1989 and 1996 and their proportion in percentage to citizens .....	102
Table: Acquisition of citizenship .....	103
Asylum seekers and clandestine arrivals and departures .....	104
Table: Asylum applications in selected countries 1989-1997 .....	105
The migration momentum .....	109
Immigration and the "multi-culturalisation" of Europe: .....	111
Table: Foreign workers legally employed in some European countries and their percentage of the total workforce .....	113
Social tensions, insecurity and integration .....	114

The potential challenges to internal security .....	117
Conclusion .....	121
 Chapter 6
Foreign Offenders and Public Insecurity .....	123
Who is a foreign offender? .....	125
International mobility and the context of offending behaviour .....	128
Foreign offenders and residency .....	132
Crime data and public perceptions .....	135
Conclusion .....	139
 Chapter 7
The Prevention of Insecurity .....	141
The subjective side of preventing crime and insecurity .....	144
Approaches to preventing insecurity and offending behaviour .....	146
Developmental crime prevention .....	150
Situational crime prevention .....	151
Community policing .....	152
Zero-tolerance policing .....	153
Evening curfews .....	155
Closed circuit television (CCTV) in public places .....	156
Policing for public safety .....	158
Building public security .....	159
 Chapter 8
Preventing Crime and Feelings of Insecurity:
The International Dimension .....	163
Prevention at the international European level .....	166
Challenges to international co-operation .....	168
International and European Union efforts at crime prevention .....	170
The United Nations and the OECD .....	171
Interpol .....	173
The Schengen Agreement .....	175
Europol .....	177
The EU and Europe .....	178
Conclusion .....	180

Chapter 9
The Case of Switzerland .....	181
Internal security in the European context .....	182
International mobility, asylum and immigration .....	184
Transnational crime and security .....	187
Swiss and European crime prevention .....	190
The EU and Switzerland .....	192
Bilateral security agreements .....	197
Switzerland's changing internal security provisions .....	199
Conclusion .....	203
Concluding Commentary .....	205
Bibliography .....	209