

✓
Peace Support Operations:
Lessons Learned and Future Perspectives

A 349052

edited by Kurt R. Spillmann, Thomas Bernauer,
Jürg M. Gabriel and Andreas Wenger

With the assistance of Yvonne Rosteck

PETER LANG

Bern • Berlin • Bruxelles • Frankfurt a.M. • New York • Oxford • Wien

Contents

Abbreviations	11
Preface	17
GENERAL INTRODUCTION	19
PART I
ACADEMIC VIEWS: CONCEPTUAL FRAMEWORKS OF PEACE SUPPORT OPERATIONS	33
Chapter 1
United Nations Peace Operations: The Brahimi Report in Context by Mats Berdal	35
Introduction: The Debate on the Role of the UN in Modern International Relations	35
What is “Traditional” about “Traditional” UN Peacekeeping?	38
o The Nature of Change in UN Field Operations	40
The Brahimi Report and the Problem of UN Reform	46
Conclusion: A More Effective Service Agency for the “International Community”	52
Chapter 2
The Development of Peacekeeping Forces by John Mackinlay	55
Introduction	55
o The Traditional Peacekeeping Model	57
The New Conflict Environment	63
The International Response	68
Conclusion: Conceptualizing Complex Humanitarian Emergencies	71

Chapter 3

UN, OSCE and NATO:

International Division of Labor in Peace Support Operations

by Wolfgang Biermann

75

Introduction

75

Division of Labor in European Conflict Management in the 1990s

76

The Conceptual Challenge: Early De-Escalation of Conflict

79

The Division of Labor between NATO and UN during the Experimental Phase of UNPROFOR

84

Survey: Lessons Learned by Practitioners from an Unusual Division of Labor during UNPROFOR

88

The UN in Former Yugoslavia: Forgotten Successes

92

Conclusion

97

Chapter 4

Civil-Military Relations in International Peace Operations

by Michael Pugh

109

Introduction

109

State-Centrism and Modern Conflict

112

Nationals, Internationals and Transnationals

117

Civilian Sector in Flux

121

Institutionalization of Civil-Military Cooperation

127

Conclusion: The Cosmopolitan Distance

130

PART II

PRACTITIONERS' VIEWS:

LESSONS LEARNED IN THE BALKANS

135

Chapter 5

A First-Hand Perspective from Kosovo

by Bernard Kouchner

137

Introduction

137

Civil-Military Cooperation

138

Institution-Building in Kosovo	139
Conclusion	145
Chapter 6
Lessons Learned as Commander KFOR in Kosovo
by Klaus Reinhardt	147
Introduction	147
Military Command and Politics	147
KFOR's Assignment	150
Lessons from the Operation	152
Conclusion	154
Chapter 7
Humanitarian Aspects of International Peace Support Operations:
The Experience of the International Committee of the Red Cross
by Jakob Kellenberger	157
Introduction	157
The Nature of Conflict in the Post-Cold War Era	158
The International Community's Response	159
The Balkan Wars and Conflict Management	160
The Militarization of Aid	164
The Development of Peace Support Operations and Lessons Learned by the ICRC	167
Conclusion	170
Chapter 8
International Stabilization and Peace Support:
What the European Union Can Contribute
by Leonidas A. Evangelidis	173
Introduction	173
The EU's Future Role in International Crisis Management	173
The Need for Close International Cooperation in Peace-Building	176
NATO and the EU: an Essential Partnership	178
Conclusion	179

Chapter 9
Peace Support Operations in the Balkans: The NATO Experience
by James Appathurai	181
Introduction	181
Bosnia-Herzegovina: Forcing NATO Out of Its Shell	183
Kosovo: Learning the Lessons of Bosnia-Herzegovina	190
Kosovo and NATO's Internal Transformation	192
Conclusion	196

PART III

NATIONAL VIEWS: THE EXPERIENCES OF NEUTRAL COUNTRIES
WITH PEACE SUPPORT OPERATIONS 197

Chapter 10
Recent Experience with Peace Support Operations: Austria's View
by Günther Greindl	199
Introduction	199
Austrian Participation in Peace Support Operations	199
A New Environment for Peacekeeping	201
Some Specific Lessons Learned in Recent Operations	206
Conclusion	210

Chapter 11
Experience as a Newcomer: Switzerland's Contribution
to International Peace Support Operations
by Bruno Lezzi	213
Introduction	213
Switzerland's Involvement in International Peace Efforts	214
The Partial Revision of the Swiss Military Law: Armed Participation in Peace Support Operations	218
Conclusion	221

Chapter 12
Training Soldiers for Peace Support Operations: New Training Requirements and Switzerland's Approach by Bruno Rösli	223
Introduction	223
Traditional Military Skills	224
Peace Support Operations Requirements	225
The Swiss Approach	227
Conclusion	230
SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY	233
About the Authors	245
Agenda of the Conference	249