

Contents

List of Maps and Annexes	5
Acknowledgements	6
Preface.	7
Part 1 : Travelling along the Sites.	9
Introduction.	9
The Southern African “San” Zone - Zimbabwe, Namibia, Botswana, Lesotho, Swaziland and South Africa.	12
The Eastern African “Hadza and Sandawe” Zone - Tanzania	59
The Central African “Twa” Zone - Angola, Zambia, Malawi and Mozambique.	66
The Eastern African and Lake Victoria Zone - Kenya, Uganda and Tanzania	88
The Northeastern African Bovidean Zone - Sudan, Eritrea, Ethiopia and Somalia.	101
Part 2 : History and Archaeology of the Sites.	111
Introduction.	111
The first Discoverers of Eastern and Southern African Rock Art	112
The Techniques of Paintings and Engravings	115
The Art Regions, Styles and Sequences	119
The Problem of Dating.	125
The Art Mobilier	130
Part 3 : Broader Ethnic Picture of Eastern and Southern African Rock Art.	132
Introduction.	132
The early Inhabitants and Artists	133
The Migration of the Cushitic- and Nilotic-speaking Pastoralist People	148
The Migration of the Bantu-speaking Agriculturist People.	152
Connections to the Sahara Rock Art	155
Meaning and Interpretation of Rock Art	157
Part 4 : Future of the Eastern and Southern African Rock Art.	167
Introduction	167
Vandalism, the main Danger to the Rock Art	168
National Monuments and Tourism	169
The Activities of UNESCO.	171
The Caretaker - a possible Solution.	174
Summary.	176
Anexes	179
List of Illustrations (Plates)	208
Illustrations.	210
Glossary	255
References	258
Register	267