CONTENTS

List of Illustrations ................................................................. vii
List of Abbreviations ............................................................... ix
List of Contributors ............................................................... xi
Foreword by Arthur Williamson ................................................ xiii
Acknowledgements ................................................................... xxi

Introduction ............................................................................. xxiii

Steve Murdoch and Andrew Mackillop

SECTION ONE

SCOTTISH NATIONAL, SUPRA-NATIONAL AND FOREIGN MILITARY IDENTITIES

1. James VI and the formation of a Scottish-British Military Identity ................................................................. 3
   Steve Murdoch

2. Beating the Odds: Alexander Leslie’s 1640 Campaign in England ................................................................. 33
   Edward Furgol

   Alexia Grosjean

4. The End of the Scots-Dutch Brigade ........................................ 83
   Joachim Migglebrink

5. ‘Tae see ourselves as ithers see us’: Scottish Military Identity from the Covenant to Victoria 1637–1837 ............. 105
   Dauvit Horsbroch
SECTION TWO
FROM GAELIC CLANSMEN TO HIGHLAND SOLDIERS

6. ‘His spirit was given only to warre’: Conflict and Identity in the Scottish Gàidhealtachd c. 1580–c. 1630 .......................... 133
   Aonghas MacCoinnich

7. Crisis of Identity? Clan Chattan’s response to government policy in the Scottish Highlands c. 1580–1609 .......................................................... 163
   Alison Catheart

8. For King, Country and Regiment? Motive and Identity in Highland Soldiering 1746–1815 ................................................. 185
   Andrew Mackillop

9. Identity in the Highland Regiments in the Nineteenth Century: Soldier, Region, Nation .................................................. 213
   Heather Streets

SECTION THREE
THE CIVILIAN IMPACT ON THE SCOTTISH MILITARY

10. Arming and Equipping the Covenanting Armies 1638–1651 ............................................................... 239
    Peter Edwards

11. The press and military conflict in early modern Scotland ................................................................. 265
    Alasdair Mann

Glossary of Scots and Scottish Gaelic Terms ........................................ 287
    Duavit Horsbroch

Index ................................................................. 289