

CONTENTS

List of Tables and Figures

I INTRODUCTION

- I Police Transformation in Central and Eastern Europe: the Challenge of Change
Marina Caparini and Otwin Marenin 3

II CENTRAL EUROPE

- 2 The Czech Police: Adopting Democratic Principles
David A. Jenks 23

- 3 The Lady Vanishes: the Silent Disappearance of the GDR Police after 1989
Fabien Jobard 45

- 4 Hungarian Police Reform
Éva Keresztes Dimovné 65

- 5 Challenges and Changes to the Police System in Poland
Emil W. Plywaczewski and Piotr Walancik 93

- 6 A Study of Police Reform in Slovenia
Milan Pagon 115

III SOUTH-EASTERN EUROPE

- 7 Democratic Government and Administrative Reform: the Transformation of Policing in Bulgaria
Vladimir Shopov 131

8	The Reform of the Romanian Police Pavel Abraham	147
IV WESTERN BALKANS
9	Police Reforms in Bosnia-Herzegovina: External Pressure and Internal Resistance L. Kendall Palmer	169
10	Distinct and Different: the Transformation of the Croatian Police Sanja Kutnjak Ivković	195
11	Macedonia's Police Reform Islam Yusufi	221
12	Police Reform in the Republic of Montenegro Željko Šević and Duško Bakrač	239
13	Police Reform in Serbia Marijana Trivunović	265
V EASTERN EUROPE
14	Police Reform in Russia Annette Robertson	289
15	Reform of the Militia in Ukraine Adrian Beck, Alexei Povolotskiy and Alexander Yarmysh	305
VI CONCLUSION
16	Process and Progress in the Reform of Policing Systems Marina Caparini and Otwin Marenin	321