The Shade of New Leaves
Governance in Traditional Authority
A Southern African Perspective

Manfred O Hinz (editor)
in collaboration
with
Helgard K Patemann
Table of Contents

Acknowledgment vii

A Word of Encouragement xi

Address Elenga Enene Ndilimani Herman Iipumbu, Chief of Uukwambi

Introduction 1

MO Hinz

Part 1 27

Legal Pluralism, Traditional Governance and the Democratic Constitutional Order

Legal Pluralism in Jurisprudential Perspective 29

MO Hinz

Continuing Legal Pluralism with Gradual Juridical Integration: The Way Forward for Post-Colonial Africa 47

K Chanda

Traditional Leadership and Governance in South Africa: A New Beginning 59

J C Bekker

Recent Developments in Respect of Policy and Regulatory Frameworks for Traditional Leadership in South Africa at Both National and Provincial Level 75

N Olivier

Traditional Authorities in Mozambique: Between Legitimisation and Legitimacy 93

MP G Meneses

xv
A Relação entre o Direito Costumeiro e o Direito Estatal e entre as Autoridades Tradicionais e o Estado
A de Oliveira João Sango

Part 2
Traditional Administration of Justice Revisited

Formal and Informal Dispute Resolution in Limpopo Province, South Africa
C S van der Waal

135

Traditional Courts and Fundamental Rights
T W Bennett

157

M Munalula

167

Criminal or Civil Procedure? The Possibility of a Plea of Autrefois in the Namibian Community Courts Act
N Horn

183

Part 3
Ascertaining Customary Law: Prerequisite of Good Governance in Traditional Authority

The Ascertainment of Customary Law
M O Hinz and J W Kwenani

203

South African Constitution, Gender Equality and Succession to Traditional Leadership: A Venda Case Study
F C de Beer

215

Customary Inheritance Law – Methodological Aspects of Research and Main Features of Inheritance Traditions
K Buschbeck

231
Adapting or Reforming Customary Family Law in a Democratic Constitutional Dispensation: The South African Experience

I P Maithufi

Bhe v the Magistrate of Khayelitsha, or: African Customary Law before the Constitution

Manfred O Hinz

Part 4
Legal Philosophy, African Philosophy and African Jurisprudence

Some Passing Thoughts on African Philosophy and its Application to Law in Review

H K Patemann

The Whole is More than the Sum of the Parts, therefore I Have Individual Rights: African Philosophy and the Anthropology of Developing Economies and Laws

W Fikentscher

What’s in a Name? The Identity and Reform of Customary Law in South Africa’s Constitutional Dispensation

C Himonga and R Manjoo

The King as Memory and Symbol of African Customary Law

M B Ramose

African Customary Law: The New Compass

E Okupa

The Antithetical Meaning of Proverbs. Exemplified with Otjiherero Proverbs

J U Kavari
Part 5
Research, Training and Teaching of Customary Law

Cherrypicking Customs: On what Happens when Custom is not Taught
W Menski

Customary Law Teaching in European Universities
N Solomon

A Comparison of Customary Law Programmes in Southern African Universities
C Mchombu

Teaching Customary Law in South Africa under the New Constitutional Dispensation
J C Bekker

The Specialised Certificate in Customary Law of the Faculty of Law of the University of Namibia

Part 6
Afterthoughts

Thoughts, Especially on the Opening Session of the Conference on Customary Law
M B Ramose

Jurisprudence and Anthropology
M O Hinz

Okupiona Omahoze – Wiping the Tears: Anthropological and Legal Anthropological Remarks
H K Patemann and M O Hinz

The Contributors