

Stefan Borrmann
Michael Klassen
Christian Spatscheck (eds.)

International Social Work

Social Problems, Cultural Issues
and Social Work Education

Barbara Budrich Publishers
Opladen & Farmington Hills 2007

Contents

Acknowledgement .....	7
-----------------------	---

Stefan Borrman/Michael Klassen/Christian Spatscheck Social Work in the International Context .....	9
--	---

International Dimensions of Social Problems and Social Work Approaches.....	15
--	-----------

Siobhan E. Laird The Application of African Practice Models to the Social Problems of Emergent Democracies .....	19
--	----

Michael Preston-Shoot/Catherine N. Dulmus/Karen M. Sowers Evidence-based Social Work: Global Perspectives and Challenges for Policy, Practice and Education .....	37
---	----

Manoj Pardansani Long-term Reconstruction and Development in Under-developed Countries Following a Natural Disaster: The Role of Social Work .....	55
--	----

Cultural Issues in International Social Work .....	73
---	-----------

Joshua Miller/Susan Donner The Complexity of Multidimensional Social Identity Development .....	75
---	----

Otrude N. Moyo Broadening Constructions of Parenting: Perspectives from African Immigrants and Refugees in Northern New England .....	95
---	----

Christian Spatscheck Youth Cultures between Control and Emancipation – Interpretations from a Western European Perspective .....	119
--	-----

International Perspectives in Social Work Education ..... 133

Yasmin Dean

Finding Common Ground. Can the Teaching of Social Work
Transcend Cultural and Geographic Borders? ..... 135

Kathleen J. Tunney

Teaching at the Intersection: A Three-Culture Model for International Social Work Education ..... 151

Rasmhi Gupta/Vijayan Pillai

U.S. Study Abroad Programs: An International Social Work
Curriculum in Aging ..... 165

About the Editors ..... 179

About the Contributors ..... 181

Index ..... 187