

CONTENTS

Contributors xi

List of Tables and Figures xiii

Preface xvii

CHAPTER ONE

After the Fall of the Wall: Living Through the Post-Socialist Transformation in East Germany 1

Karl Ulrich Mayer

CHAPTER TWO

Society of Departure: The German Democratic Republic 29

Karl Ulrich Mayer

CHAPTER THREE

A “Ready-Made State”: The Mode of Institutional Transition
in East Germany After 1989 44

Anne Goedicke

CHAPTER FOUR

Old Assets, New Liabilities? How Did Individual Characteristics
Contribute to Labor Market Success or Failure After 1989? 65

Martin Diewald, Heike Solga, Anne Goedicke

CHAPTER FIVE

Firms and Fortune: The Consequences of Privatization and Reorganization 89

Anne Goedicke

CHAPTER SIX

Lost in Transformation? Disparities of Gender and Age 116

Heike Trappe

CHAPTER SEVEN

The Rise of Meritocracy? Class Mobility in East Germany Before and After 1989 140

Heike Solga

CHAPTER EIGHT

Family Formation in Times of Abrupt Social and Economic Change 170

Johannes Huinink, Michaela Kreyenfeld

CHAPTER NINE

Community Lost or Freedom Gained? Changes of Social Networks After 1989 191

Martin Diewald, Jörg Lüdicke

CHAPTER TEN

Spirals of Success and Failure? The Interplay of Control Beliefs and Working Lives in the Transition from Planned to Market Economy 214

Martin Diewald

CHAPTER ELEVEN

Comparing Paths of Transition: Employment Opportunities and Earnings in East Germany and Poland During the First Ten Years of the Transformation Process 237

Martin Diewald, Bogdan W. Mach

CHAPTER TWELVE

The Quest for a Double Transformation: Trends of Flexibilization
in the Labor Markets of East and West Germany 269

Martin Diewald

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

Unusual Turbulences—Unexpected Continuities: Transformation
Life Courses in Retrospective 293

Martin Diewald, Anne Goedicke, Karl Ulrich Mayer

Appendix 319

Notes 325

References 339

Glossary 373

Index 377