

CONTENTS

I MYTH OF MEDIA ART	9
Preface: Art in its singularity and its transformation into the universal short maxims on art (and its 'media character')	11
From aesthetics of mastery to poetics of diversity – art's inevitable disappearing act from the avant-garde trap	16
Navigating, finding, constructing, poeticizing – the artfulness of artistic imagination based on the example of Jean-Luc Godard	29
From the synaesthetics of utopian modernism to the simulations of a machine theater	33
Art and the techno-machine. On the idolatry of images and the self-image of "digital art" as organized in terms of mechanical apparatus	39
Cyberspace – The hall of metaphors and dreams	44
On the divergence of apparatus, art, and mass culture – interactivity as a gulf and a bridge?	81
The digital artist as an animistic world demon	87
The poetics of kairos replaces the politics of chronos – conclusion, summary, hypotheses, outlook	90
II MEDIA CONTEXTS:KEY TOPICS, ARGUMENTS, EXAMPLES	97
Immersive Environments: The Gesamtkunstwerk of the 21st Century?	99
Ruin and Utopia or the Desert of the Real: From the Vanity of Pictures to the Distress of the Imagination	108
Work, Time, and Waste: Perspectives on a Criticism of the Political Economy of the New Media	120

Authenticity in the Fine Arts	132
Connectivity and Cartography. On Artistic Practice, Labor, Subjectivity, Agency	150
Challenges the Media Pose for a Contemporary Design Theory	167
Art, Utopia, and the Media. Thoughts on the Lab. Yearbook for the Arts and Apparatuses	178
Surface, Moment, Data Flow. On digital photography with comments on Zelko Wiener's "Netzhaut"	184
From Observation to a Media Mannerism	189
Imagination, Dream, and Repetition: Bill Viola's "He Weeps for You", 1976	197