Contents

Introduction by Thomas Lahusen and Peter H. Solomon, Jr.

1

I. Markets and Facades

“I lost it at the market”: Some Thoughts on the Political Economy of Post-Soviet Russia
Robert E. Johnson
15

Markets, Money, and Private Property: The Persistence of Soviet Socialism in Russia Today
James R. Millar
26

Klychkov i Pustota: Post-Soviet Bureaucrats and the Production of Institutional Facades
Jessica Allina-Pisano
40

Informal Networks in Postcommunist Economies:
A “Topographical Map”
Alena V. Ledeneva
57

Administrative Styles in Soviet History: The Development of Patrimonial Rationality
Peter H. Solomon, Jr.
78

II. History Inside Out

“By a Different Yardstick”: Boris Mironov’s A Social History of Imperial Russia: 1700-1917, and its Reception in Russia
Ben Eklof
93

From a “Prominent Biologist” to a “Red Frankenstein”:
Ilya Ivanov in Soviet and Post-Soviet Biographies
Nikolai Krementsov
120
Who’s Afraid of Joseph Stalin?
Tracy McDonald

Whither Anti-Stalinism?
Kathleen E. Smith

III. Dispensing Welfare and Punishment

“Untraditional Sex” and the “Simple Russian”: Nostalgia for Soviet Innocence in the Polemics of Dilia Enikeeva
Dan Healey

The Social Promise: Rights, Privileges, and Responsibilities in Russian Welfare State Reform since Gorbachev
Andrea Chandler

Social Welfare or Wasteful Excess?: The Legacy of Soviet Tuberculosis Control Programs in Post-Soviet Russia
Michael Z. David

Continuities in Penal Russia: Space and Gender in Post-Soviet Geography of Punishment
Judith Pallot

IV. Landscape after the Future

Post-Post-Communist Sincerity: Pioneers, Cosmonauts, and Other Soviet Heroes Born Today
Alexei Yurchak

Finding the Soviet in Post-Soviet Space: An Excavation of the Post-Soviet City of Nizhni Novgorod
Heather DeHaan

Decay or Endurance? The Ruins of Socialism
Thomas Lahusen

Contributors