

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments.....	vii
1. Introduction.....	1
2. Declarative intonation patterns.....	5
2.1 Introduction.....	5
2.2 Intonation patterns of broad focus declaratives.....	7
2.2.1 Overview of research on Spanish.....	7
2.2.2 Pitch movement and phonological stress.....	8
2.2.3 Temporal alignment of F0 rises.....	11
2.2.4 Downstepping.....	15
2.2.5 Final lowering.....	18
2.2.6 Summary of broad focus declarative intonation.....	20
2.3 Intonation patterns of declaratives containing narrow focus.....	21
2.3.1 Overview of research on Spanish.....	21
2.3.2 The word in narrow focus.....	22
2.3.3 The non-focal portions of the utterance.....	27
2.3.4 The role of syntactic constituency.....	31
2.3.5 Summary of narrow focus declarative intonation.....	33
2.4 Conclusion.....	34
3. Absolute interrogative intonation patterns.....	36
3.1 Introduction.....	36
3.2 Intonation patterns of absolute interrogatives in broad focus.....	36
3.2.1 Overview of research on Spanish.....	36
3.2.2 Final F0 movement.....	37
3.2.3 Height of the initial F0 peak.....	38
3.2.4 Sentence-medial F0 movement.....	40
3.2.5 Shape of the final pitch accent.....	42
3.2.6 Special pragmatic meanings.....	43
3.2.7 Summary of broad focus absolute interrogative intonation.....	47
3.3 Intonation patterns of absolute interrogatives containing narrow focus.....	48
3.3.1 Overview of research on Spanish.....	48
3.3.2 The word in narrow focus.....	50
3.3.3 The non-focal portions of the utterance.....	57
3.4 Conclusion.....	59
4. Intonational cues and the perception of the declarative-absolute interrogative distinction.....	61
4.1 Introduction.....	61
4.2 Previous perceptual studies of declarative and interrogative intonation.....	62
4.3 First perception experiment.....	65
4.3.1 Purpose.....	65
4.3.2 Experimental methods.....	65
4.3.3 Results.....	67
4.3.4 Discussion.....	68
4.4 Second perception experiment.....	69
4.4.1 Purpose.....	69

4.4.3	Results .....	72
4.4.3.1	Perception of sentence type: No contradictory cues .....	72
4.4.3.2	Perception of sentence type: Conflicting cues .....	73
4.4.3.3	Naturalness ratings .....	77
4.4.4	Discussion .....	81
4.5	Conclusion.....	82
5.	Implications for phonological analysis.....	85
5.1	Introduction .....	85
5.2	Intonational units.....	86
5.3	Temporal alignment of tonal events.....	88
5.3.1	Introduction.....	88
5.3.2	Pitch accents.....	88
5.3.3	Edge tones .....	93
5.4	Pitch range.....	94
5.4.1	Introduction .....	94
5.4.2	Local considerations.....	95
5.4.3	Global considerations.....	97
5.5	Conclusion.....	98
References	.....	101