Table of Contents

Sebastian M. Herrmann, Leonard Schmieding

Ambivalent Americanizations

- music
  - Reinhold Wagnleitner
    - Jazz – The Classical Music of Globalization
  - Thomas Kolitsch
    - The Monotony of the Yeah, Yeah, Yeah – Official Ways of Dealing with Western Popular Music in the GDR
  - Leonard Schmieding

popular genres

- Katja Kanzler
  - Kansas, Oz, and the Magic Land: A Wizard’s Travels Through the Iron Curtain
- Nevena Dakovic
  - City Foxes / East-West Soap (Belgrade / New York)

shopping

- Nadine Swibenko
  - “Because I’m an ‘Ossi’...” Asserting Identity by Consuming East German Goods
- Ewa Grzeszczyk
  - American Models of Consumption and their Presence in Poland
material culture

SEBASTIAN M. HERRMANN
A Plastic Modernity? 167

ANNE KOENEN
Superior Taste – Mail Order in the GDR 187

confrontations

MAGDALENA ZIÓŁEK
American Smiles on Polish Faces:
American Culture in the Discourse of Globalization from the Perspective of the Polish Young Generation 211

MAŁGORZATA GAJDA-LASZEWSKA
Why We Loved What They Told Us to Hate:
Miscalculations of the Anti-American Propaganda in the Polish Posters of the Stalinist Period. 233

ZOE A. KUSMIERZ
"The glitter of your kitchen pans":
The Kitchen, Home Appliances, and Politics at the American National Exhibition in Moscow, 1959 253

Contributors 273

Index 277