

Contents

1	Rural Geography in Britain and Germany: A Personal View Doris Schmied	1
2	Changing Concepts for and Features of Village Development in Germany from 1950 to the Present Gerhard Henkel	13
3	Integrated Rural Development and its Implementation in Germany Ulrike Grabski-Kieron	25
4	New Concepts of Regional Development in Rural Areas Jörg Maier	35
5	Conversion of Redundant Agricultural Buildings and the Implications for Rural Development Stefanie Arens	43
6	Second Homes and Planning Control in Wales Nick Gallent, Mark Tewdwr-Jones and Alan Mace	53
7	Sustainable Development and Planning for New Housing in Rural Areas Olivia Wilson	65
8	Using the Participatory Approach to Improve the Quality of Rural Life: Practical Experiences from Hesse Nathalie Franzen	75
9	Participation – Added Value through Collective Action? A Qualitative Cost-Benefit Analysis of the Transdisciplinary Research Project GRANO Axel Dosch	81
10	Sustainable Forms of Food Supply in Rural Areas: Case Studies from Austria Franz Brunner	91
11	Localizing Products, Producing Locales: Commodification and Authentification of Local Food and Rural Nature Ulrich Ermann	99
12	Towards a Post-productivist Countryside in the UK and Germany? Geoff Wilson	111

13	The Drivers of Agricultural Land Use Change in Scotland over the Past Decade: Preliminary Results from Huntly, Aberdeenshire Rob Burton	121
14	Village Communication and Land Use Decisions Carmen Retter and Hermann Boland	133
15	Development of Soil Quality Indicators for Assessment of Agricultural Sustainability: A Blend of Scientific and Indigenous Knowledge Konstantinos N. Baginetas, Charles Watkins and Richard Field	143
16	Rural Accessibility and Social Inclusion: Towards Conceptualisation and Analysis John H. Farrington and Conor Farrington	155