

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION	5
Historical Test of the Two paths of Development	5
Who Was Right: We or the Social-Democrats?	7
I. THE MATURING OF A NEW UPSURGE IN THE REVOLUTIONARY MOVEMENT	9
The Economic and Political Struggles of the Proletariat	9
The Consequences of Sectarian Mistakes	14
II. THE REVOLUTIONARY MOVEMENT IN THE YEARS OF GREATEST CRISIS	19
The Imperialist Bourgeoisie Is Seeking a Way Out in War and Fascism	21
The Working Class Is Seeking a Way Out in Revolution	23
The Struggle of the Unemployed	24
The Strike Movement	27
Defects in the Organization of the Mass Struggle of the Toilers	29
Always with the Masses and at the Head of the Masses	31
The Fight for the Allies of the Proletariat	35
The Fascist Offensive Against the German Toilers	38
The Bourgeoisie Has Failed to Weaken the Fighting Spirit of the Masses	41
III. THE SHIFT OF THE SOCIALIST WORKERS TOWARDS A UNITED FRONT WITH THE COMMUNISTS	44
The Bankruptcy of Social-Democratic Policy	46
Successes of the United Front and the Anti-Fascist People's Front	51
The Way to Overcome the Split in the Ranks of the Working Class	57
The Triumphant Progress of the Chinese Soviets	58

IV. THE COMMUNIST INTERNATIONAL AND ITS SECTIONS	62
The Heroic Warriors of Communism	65
We Must Explain the Program, Strategy and Tactics of the Comintern to the Masses	68
Contact with the Masses—A Law of Bolshevism	70
The Most Important Sections of the Communist International	73
The Leninist Style of Leadership	78
The Era of the Second International Is Over	79
V. THE PROSPECTS OF WORLD DEVELOPMENT AND THE WORLD REVOLUTION	82
The U.S.S.R.—The Pride and Glory of the World Proletariat	82
The Revolutionary Crisis Is Maturing	84
Fascism Means War	87
Socialism Means Peace	89
Under the Banner of Lenin and Stalin, Forward to Storm Capitalism	90
SPEECH IN REPLY TO DISCUSSION	93