

Contents

Kiran Klaus Patel
*The history of European integration and the Common Agricultural Policy:
an introduction* 7

Part I Trajectories of integration

Fritz Georg v. Graevenitz
From kaleidoscope to architecture: interdependence and integration in wheat policies, 1927-1957 27

Guido Thiemeyer
The failure of the Green Pool and the success of the CAP: long term structures in European agricultural integration in the 1950s and 1960s 47

Ann-Christina L. Knudsen
Ideas, welfare, and values: The framing of the Common Agricultural Policy in the 1960s 61

N. Piers Ludlow
The green heart of Europe? The rise and fall of the CAP as the Community's central policy, 1958-1985 79

Part II The perspective of member states and of European institutions

Laurent Warlouzet
The deadlock: the choice of the CAP by de Gaulle and its impact on French EEC policy, 1958-1969 99

Venus Bivar
Land reform, European integration, and the industrialization of agriculture in postwar France 119

Kiran Klaus Patel
Europeanisation à contre-coeur: West Germany and agricultural integration, 1945 to 1975 139

Katja Seidel Making Europe through the CAP: DG VI and its high officials	161
Johan van Merriënboer Commissioner Sicco Mansholt and the creation of the CAP	181
Part III
Global connections and economic effects
Lucia Coppolaro The Six, agriculture, and GATT: an international history of the CAP negotiations, 1958-1967	201
Martin Rempe Airy promises: the Senegal and the EEC's Common Agricultural Policy in the 1960s	221
Christian Gerlach Fortress Europe: the EEC in the World Food Crisis, 1972-1975	241
Giovanni Federico Was the CAP the worst agricultural policy of the 20th century?	257
Vicente Pinilla/Raúl Serrano Agricultural and food trade in the European Union, 1961-2000	273
List of Contributors	301