Table of Contents

List of Tables and Illustrations
11

Introduction
13

1. Literature Review
   a. Literature on the expatriate situation and elite labour migration 15
   b. Literature on German migrant groups in the world 20
   γ. Literature on German and other immigrant groups in Britain 23

2. Methodology
28

3. Explanation of chapter division
31

Chapter One: Labour mobility, expatriation and the Germans in Richmond 35

1. International mobility and the expatriate experience
   α. Definition of terms 37
   β. International labour mobility 40
   γ. The expatriate experience and other career migration 43

2. The Germans in Richmond and Kingston
   α. Size and residence patterns 53
   β. Social and occupational composition 71

3. Age, gender and family
   α. Age structure 79
   β. Women migrants and the female expatriate experience 81
   γ. Trailing spouses 85

Chapter Two: Ethnic institutions and the shaping of identity
95

1. Community and diaspora - a discussion of terminology 96

2. Ethnic institutions in Richmond— instances of diaspora culture 106
3. Educational institutions 113
   a. The German School London 113
   b. K.I.S.H Kindergarten 128

4. Ethnic economy 130
   a. Catering and food businesses 132
   b. Other businesses 141

5. Local versus global (ethnic) identity 144

Chapter Three: Religion and ethnic identity 173

1. The connection between religion and ethnic identity 174

2. The German churches in Britain 177

3. The German churches in Ham/Petersham 182
   a. History 182
   b. Size and Membership 184
   c. Fluctuation 193
   d. Purpose 209

Conclusion 219

References 229

Appendices 245

Appendix 1: Sample questionnaire 245