

Contents

Elena Agazzi Enrico Giannetto Franco Giudice Introduction . . . . .	7
Elio Jucci Between Beginning and End. Glares of Light in the Jewish Tradition . . .	17
Franco Giudice The Visible World: Aspects of Optics in the Seventeenth Century . . . . .	41
Audrey Taschini He Was Not that Light, but Was Sent to Bear Witness of That Light: the Language of Vision and Illumination in John Donne's Commentary of John 1.8 . . . . .	57
Angela Locatelli Discursive Intersections on the Subject of "Light" in English Renaissance Literature . . . . .	69
Raul Calzoni A Never Written Treatise. Notes on Novalis' Representations of Light . . .	87
Greta Perletti "As from a Dark and Troubled Sea". The Light of Memory in Charlotte Brontë's Mature Fiction . . . . .	103
Alessandra Violi Anatomies of Light: the Photomatic Body in fin de siècle Science . . . . .	119

Alberto Castoldi
Epiphanies of Light. From Raphaëlle Peale's Venus Rising from the Sea	141
Maria Luisa Roli
The Gaze and Optical Devices in Goethe's and Stifter's Works	155
Elisabeth Bronfen
Interrogating Light. The Visuality of the Text	167
Pietro Barbetta
Camera Versus Microscope. The Psychiatric Eye between Biology and Society During the 19th Century	183
Lawrence Gasquet
Camera-Less is More: The Enlightened Photographical Practice of Four Contemporary British Artists (Christopher Bucklow, Susan Derges, Garry Fabian Miller &amp; Adam Fuss)	195
Ronald Shusterman
The Art of Light and the Light of Art: Epistemology in Contemporary Sculpture	213
Enrico Giannetto
Towards a Photical Idea of Nature: Physics as Photics or the Light of Relativity	233